

4143

Environmental Engineering Design.

Prerequisites: 3833, 3853, 4833. Factors involved in the design of engineered environmental systems. Solving "real world" environmental engineering problems. Design experience using decision making techniques, integrating and expanding upon current knowledge, and defending engineering decisions made. Economic, environmental, social and regulatory aspects of environmental engineering design.