

5373

Design of Traffic Control Systems.

Prerequisite: 3633. Traffic control systems design, available technological options and range of agency needs. Design of vehicle detectors, controllers, communications links, signal display hardware and wiring. Development of timing plans using computer simulation models. Freeway surveillance and control: ramp metering, incident detection and motorist information systems. Preparation of contractual documents and construction supervision.